Unifor vows to fight privatization of health care in Ontario, and gears up for a massive rally. Plus, Bell Canada lays off dozens of workers while it outsources jobs for a new wireless internet program. And, combatting hate in the aftermath of the horrific attacks in Sri Lanka.

 WHAT'S HOT

Unifor vows to fight Doug Ford's plan to privatize health care and implement widespread cuts.

 TAKE ACTION

Join us for a rally to let the Ontario government know we're serious about protecting public health care.
